Arkad S.p.A., with registered office in Milan, via V. Pisani 16, as Data Controller, hereby informs you that, pursuant to the privacy regulation – Legislative Decree 196/03, Regulation 2016/679/EU, Legislative Decree 101/18 – the processing of your data will be based on the principles of fairness, lawfulness, transparency and protection of confidentiality.

Personal data contained in the curriculum you submit to us is processed by the Company for the purposes related to recruitment, selection and assessment of the personnel.

Arkad S.p.A. reserves the right to directly collect from you – during the interview – additional information on your training, experience, earlier remuneration and expectations, and to supplement this information with an aptitude assessment.

Any sensitive data – i.e. personal data revealing racial or ethnic, religious, philosophical or other beliefs, political opinions, membership of political parties, unions, associations or organizations of a religious, philosophical, political or trade union, as well as personal data disclosing health and sex life – if provided by the candidates will not be taken into account. The only exception provided for is that the candidate is a protected person, a necessary information to assess the tax, administrative and organizational aspects of the professional career of the candidate at Arkad S.p.A.

The provision of personal data is not compulsory, but failure to provide them will result in the company not considering your candidacy. Legal grounds for processing your personal data are both their need for the purposes of the assessment, that may lead to the establishment of an employment relation, and the consent that we request to you hereto.

Your personal data are gathered and will be processed, with terms and procedures strictly necessary to pursue the purposes set forth above, by Arkad S.p.A., and by other suppliers that are appointed as Data Processors.
